Holiday 2025

Holiday 2025

By: Nick Krum

Klahowya fellow Arrowmen!

Happy Holidays to all! I hope everyone is staying warm this festive season. One of my gifts to you all this year is this festive-themed Marmot's Whistle. Feel free to print out the Whistle and try out all of these games that I have made for you. If you don't have access to a printer, do not fear, as I will be bringing several extra copies for you at Winter Fellowship next month. If you wish to contribute to all this holiday cheer and want to get involved in making the Marmot's Whistle with me, feel free to reach out and join the committee, where we will team up and make the best newsletter ever for our lodge!

Tremble with Fear,

-Nick Krum

Lodge Secretary

Perry the Marmot Mad Libs!!!!

Play this one with your friends. Experience Perry the Marmot's Epic Journey together!

One day, my ADJECTIVE friend Perry the Marmot decided to go on an Ordeal to the CAMP NAME. He packed his favorite NOUN and a ADJECTIVE snack because, of course, you can't provide service without PLURAL FOOD. As he walked through the ADJECTIVE forest, he heard a strange SOUND. Suddenly, a ANIMAL wearing a CLOTHING ITEM jumped out and said, "Give me your NOUN or else!" Being the ADJECTIVE Scout he is, Perry responded, "Not today, NICKNAME!" and pulled out a RANDOM OBJECT from his uniform pocket. The SAME ANIMAL was so surprised that it VERB, PAST TENSE away, leaving behind a treasure chest filled with PLURAL NOUN. He opened it and found a map leading to a ADJECTIVE secret PLACE. Without hesitation, he hopped onto a VEHICLE and raced off. When he got there, he discovered a ADJECTIVE NOUN waiting for him. It said, "Congratulations, you're the SUPERLATIVE ADJECTIVE Marmot adventurer ever!" Perry the Marmot returned home feeling EMOTION and couldn't wait to tell me about his wild Ordeal. He ended the night by eating PLURAL FOOD and watching his favorite TV SHOW. The End.

Some Words From the National Parks Dep.

This is the ideal marmot body. You may not like it, but this is what peak performance looks like.

❄️ WINTER IS COMING...and these absolute legends have been bulking up like it's cheat-day, well, everyday. In just a few months they've gone full "bear-mode," (They saw Fat Bear Week and said "hold my grass.") packing on so much fat they can sleep straight through winter.

Here's how they adapt and crush hibernation harder than your New Year's gym resolutions:

✅ Turn into walking (well, waddling) fuzzballs (scientific term, thank you) with fat reserves that last up to 8 months.

To bulk up, they primarily eat plants like grasses, leaves, flowers, and berries, but they are omnivores and also consume insects, seeds, and bird eggs when available.

Second breakfast, please.

Once settled in for winter, they drop their heart rate from 200 BPM

(post-cardio vibes) to a chill 30 BPM. That's one heartbeat every two seconds.

✅ Is it warm in here? They skip the heating bill entirely by throwing the coziest colony sleepover in one big burrow. Who's snoring?

In conclusion, marmots spend over half their lives napping like champions. Respect the hustle...or lack thereof. Keep slaying, Perry the Marmot.

Articles Wanted for Marmots Whistle

By: Nick Krum

Want to write something for the Marmots Whistle? Anyone can write an article for Marmot's Whistle. We would love to hear about your time at any OA, or you can even write a letter to Perry. It doesn't have to be long; two sentences and a picture is great. Articles can be submitted at any time by sending them to the Secretary.

Additionally, you can join The Marmot's Whistle Committee! Being part of the committee is a great way you can get involved in supporting our Lodge. The Committee's primary focus is to make the Marmot's Whistle as engaging as possible and to ensure that it is published promptly. We are always looking for more Arrowmen like you to get involved! If interested in joining the committee or have any questions, please reach out to Lodge Secretary Nick Krum.
